PERSI Welcomes Darin DeAngeli to the Retirement Board of Trustees Boise, Idaho – May 21, 2019

The Public Employee Retirement System of Idaho (PERSI) welcomes Darin DeAngeli as its newest Trustee. Governor Little appointed Trustee DeAngeli in May, and his term runs through July 1, 2021.

As an attorney and a certified public accountant for over 25 years, Trustee DeAngeli has focused on all aspects of estate and wealth planning, charitable giving, charitable organizations, and business succession planning.

Prior to forming Ahrens & DeAngeli, pllc with Ed Ahrens in 1997, he served as a family wealth planning manager with Arthur Andersen. Trustee DeAngeli has represented some of the wealthiest families and largest companies in Idaho, and the western United States. Regionally, he is known as one of the top legal advisors in matters involving charitable giving and charitable organizations.

Ahrens DeAngeli Law Group (ADLG) clients and colleagues appreciate his experience and unique approach to complex legal issues, which always includes wit, humor and practical wisdom.

He received his juris doctorate from the University of Oregon in May of 1991, graduating Order of the Coif. He was the Editor-in-Chief of the Oregon Law Review. Trustee DeAngeli received his MBA in Finance/Human Resource Management in June of 1989 from the University of Oregon and his BS in Accounting from Boise State University, graduating Cum Laude.

In addition to his new role with PERSI, Trustee DeAngeli has a vast philanthropic background. He has served on multiple boards and committees and has volunteered for many nonprofits in the Treasure Valley including multiple boards at St. Luke's, Boise Public Schools Education Foundation, Children's Home Society of Idaho, Bronco Athletic Association, Friends of Zoo Boise and Women's and Children's Alliance.

Trustee DeAngeli's first Board meeting is scheduled for May 21, 2019 at 8:30 a.m. at the Boise PERSI Office. PERSI Retirement Board meetings are open to the public.
